Rex-
It's been a blast being in a class with you. You didn't talk very much but when you did you made me laugh. And in general business you need a good laugh to keep ya going.
Have a nice summer.
Love
Melody. (Sister)

Always,
Love,
Ginette Keep your smile. Stay nice HDP

Rex,
you're a good history student, but a lousy lacrosse player!
Keep up the practice, but I'll always win. Have a nice summer, and I'll see you next year - on the lacrosse court! Pat & Lewis

Rex,
you're a real cool guy see ya next year!

Pat
it's been real fun knowing you in science. Have a real fun summer and see you next year.
Love Donna

Pat,
you're a good friend who are here and many boring general classes together and now it's over. Good luck in the future.

TRACES . . .

The yearbook is a trace of a time in our lives. It is a reminder of past school memories. The Cayuse traces the emotions, activities, achievements, and events of one year at Walnut High School.

The meaning of "cayuse" traces back to the time of the American Indian. It was the term applied to a small, wild horse - a free, young and vibrant pony. Our yearbook, the Cayuse, preserves the memory of a time in our lives when we are young and spirited.

THE YEAR IS OVER

TRACES . . .

Through each and every experience in our lives there is something which has been left behind.

A mark, a shell, a picture — in every one of these is left a trace of learning that leads to exploration of the unknown.

TRACES . . .

A time of excitement,

A special moment together,

Leads into the quiet of an evening.

The end of the year,
The closing of another
chapter of life,
A time for reminiscing,
a time for remembering.
And yet,
A time for anticipation
and hope.
For after the sunset
comes the dawn,
A dawn of bright promises, the rise of new experiences.
As the sun arises, the past is traced over in memories.
A tear, a laugh,
a thought,
The memories that guide the path of life of a new day.

— Deb Burdick —

The yearbook staffs of past and present are deeply grateful for the unforgettable services of their former advisor, Mrs. Barbara Smith. For five years Mrs. Smith has given much of her time to help produce a fine yearbook. The students of past years have enjoyed working with her.

When Mrs. Smith started with her first staff in 1969, Volume I of the Cayuse consisted of a mere 120 pages. Since then, the book has increased greatly.

We would like to express our appreciation by dedicating the 1973-1974 Cayuse to Mrs. Barbara Smith.

On November 2, 1973, Walnut High School conducted its fifth annual Homecoming ceremony. Eight girls were nominated this year for princesses, and there were eight nominees for princes as well. The princesses were: Donna Blankenship, Jane Dyer, Cheri Greeley, Jenny Hillseth, Sheri Hunstein, Sheryl Hunstein, Marleen Martinez, and Lynn Ryder. Cheri Greeley was crowned queen. Homecoming is the most exciting of all the year's activities, and Homecoming '73 was the best ever!

Homecoming '73 was preceded by a full week of fun and action. Students participated in bubble gum-blowing, pie-eating, and ice-melting contests, and the Seniors triumphed in the tug o' war. The cheerleaders conducted a 50's day pep rally which was a lot of fun. Each class posted spirit signs around the school for spirit points. The Sophomore Class of '76 proved to be the Most Spirited Class of Walnut High.

LIZA BENTON

Saturday, December 1st, 1973, the Girls' League sponsored Walnut High School's sixth Christmas Formal. The Los Angeles International Hotel penthouse held over one-hundred couples, the largest participation ever for a Christmas Formal. The court was crowned with Marleen Martinez as Queen. Lori Corrente was announced Senior Princess; Erin Flaherty, Junior Princess; Kim Chilcoat, Sophomore Princess; and Liza Benton, Freshman Princess. The Christmas Formal of 1973 was an evening of luxury.

Walnut High School conducted its first fashion show in 1973. Most of its participants were members of home economics classes. Many students attended the show, and many commented that it was a good idea to feature not only women's fashions, but men's fashions as well. ASB sponsored an ice cream social which gathered school clubs together for one night. The purpose of the social was to introduce all of the clubs and organizations available to the Walnut High School Student Body.

Throughout the school year, one of Walnut's largest organizations tried to stir the spirit in the school's students. Pepsters conducted about seven pep rallies in which football players, wrestlers, track members, and baseball players were honored. The pepsters' purpose was to boost school spirit and to support athletics.

HOOPFEVER

1974 was the year that Hoopfever hit Walnut High School. Basketball games were played between classes and between students and faculty. Between the Freshmen and Sophomores, the Sophomores won. The Senior girls and the Senior boys won against the Junior teams. In the Varsity vs. Faculty game, the Faculty won.

DONKEY BASKETBALL

Saturday night at 7:30 p.m., January 26, the Walnut High School faculty played the lettermen in Donkey Basketball. The lettermen defeated the faculty with a score of 32-30. This year's donkey antics were the funniest ever!

FINE ARTS

TRACES OF CREATIVITY . . .

The purpose of a yearbook is to record the events of a school year — the achievements, activities, victories, and defeats. The Fine Arts section is included this year to trace the thoughts and artistic expression of those who may not receive recognition for other achievements. Like any other activity, art and poetry are traces of student thoughts and ideas during this school year. Unlike pictures of people, creative expression through art and poetry reveals more than the physical being; it reveals a person's inner being . . .

Everything we are taught,

ALONE

Riding an imaginary bike along an imaginary road, swimming through a lake that is infinitely large,
sipping large bottles of Coca-Cola on hot summer days, catching mysterious thoughts from other worlds, looking at people as alone as I, listening to the never-ending sound of people calling my name, uttering words of sorrow from the deepest part of my heart, condemning all reality coming from all directions, forgetting I live in a world of mystic horizons, running away from the pressures of life,
I am one, I am alone.

By Tim Houchen

Top: Wes Stetz displays his Christmas art project, a mobile of natural seeds and peas. Above: Marlyn McCue sculpts in plaster.

The thing inside of me is cold and hard and sits where my heart used to be.
The thing grows with the thought of it, grows, pushing at my sides and chest.
It eats away any happiness I might find and kills any love I might begin.
At times it seems to consume my entire self — body and soul,
and leaves me aching from depression and fatigue.

The thing inside of me is deep hurt and sits where my love used to be.
The hurt is caused by someone I love very much,
caused by his hateful actions and feelings toward me.
It eats away at memories of happiness I have and tries to kill the love that remains.
I try to harden myself against it, try forming a wall through which bad feelings cannot penetrate.
But it comes back, flooding my entire self — body and soul,
and leaves me aching from the hurt.

By Debbie Burdick

Every heart we break,
Every joy that we bring,
Everything we hate,
Every song that we sing,

In the future or past,
In our minds indelibly,
Everything will last,
Living on in a memory.

FINE ARTS WEEK

Sculpting . . . painting . . . sketching . . . writing . . . acting . . . singing . . . these creative endeavors marked the week of April 1st during the Fine Arts Festival. Classes browsed the art area and watched artists in action.

Fine Arts week, a Walnut High School tradition, consisted of an art exhibit of the works of students in 3-D Art and Art 1, 2, and 3, a music concert presented by the Music Department, the play "Inherit the Wind," directed by Mr. Gilliland, the publication of the school's first fine arts magazine, "Inner Light," and an enjoyable, but exhausting Friday night dance and lightshow.

SUMMER LOVE

Summer love is what we share, to show each other how much we care.

We talk and sing and share the day,
'til winter takes your love away.

Soon your love will disappear,
but mine will grow even stronger.

Sometimes I think I cannot bear, to be without you any longer.

I wish that I could let you go, but my heart won't let me be.

I know that I love you so,
I hope someday you will love me.
There's always this summer.

By Diane Nimmo

I saw a peace sign carved into a tree, but the thought of peace did not come to me, because peace should mean beauty and harmony.
So to cut into the life of a beautiful tree,
is not peace at all, at least not to me.

By Debbie Burdick

I WISH

The room is neat without a sound and lonely as I look around.
Remembering yet another day,
you wanted me to stop and play.

But I was busy, with things to do;
I didn't have much time for you,
or the verse you wanted me to hear,
and my reply was, "Later dear."

My days were full of busy tasks, no time for questions that you asked.
You wanted to share the things you'd learned, but when you looked my back was turned.

The years rushed by, I wish I'd known that you would be so quickly grown.
No longer holding out to me
the need I was too rushed to see.

And now the toys are put away,
we've no more songs or games to play.
No good night kiss or story to hear.
That's all a part of another year.

I wish I could go back again, relive those years as they might have been,
and the little things you asked me to do.
I wish I'd made more time for you.

By Joe Holland

Terrible splendor stalks through the night, with blinding swiftness and savage might.

Yours is the scream of bolting thunder, yours is the fame of ravaging plunder.

A soft, thick coat shells a hard lithe tower,
in your powerful presence, all others must cower.

Dark jungle is yours, here you are king, over birds and beasts and other wild things.

But what will you do when the hut grows near?
Wade deeper in jungle is what I fear.

What must you think of man's imposition?
To murder and tame and force enclosurement.

Why do you fight to breathe every breath?
Such un-godly odds will surely mean death.

A salute, oh Tiger, to you and your creed!
A dwindling beauty that man doth bleed.

By John McIntyre
A graduate of Walnut High School 1972

There was a time when I could reach out to you, a time when I could lean on you,
a time when I just wanted to be near you.
You were always there.

There was a time when I needed a shoulder to cry on,
a time when I just wanted to sit and talk,
a time when things started to get rough.
You were always there.

There was a time when I just wanted to be near someone, close,
a time when I needed someone to guide me,
a time when I needed a gentle helping hand.
You were always there.

But then there came a time when we no longer felt the same feelings; we began to take advantage of each other, argue, and even hurt each other. We fell away from each other.

Now as we pass in the hall, or catch each other's glances in line or in class, we rarely speak; and I no longer get that happy, tingly feeling that I used to. I hold no grudges against you or me or the love we once shared. For I'll always remember the times when you were always there.

AWARDS

This year the CAYUSE Staff included a special section on awards because it is our belief that many people in the past have not received deserved recognition for their academic accomplishment. In attempting to cover a school year's events, we wanted to recognize those who would otherwise go unnoticed for their efforts and success through four years of high school, as well as all other facets of school life. Following is a list of "Special School Awards" given for 1973-74: John Griswold, English; Foreign Languages — Chris Mings, French; John Sammis, German; Sandy Person, Spanish; Debbie Orth, Journalism/Newspaper; Debbie Burdick and Beverly Brown, Mathematics; Monica Cervera, Librarianship.

Top left: Beverly Brown was selected as Valedictorian for 1973-74. She was chosen because of her outstanding academic record, as well as her involvement at Walnut High School. Bev had a grade point average of 3.98; a perfect average being 4.0. Top right: Susan Wong was a nominee from Walnut High School for the Citrus Valley Optimist Club of Covina Scholarship Award Program. Right: The Kiwanis Club Service Awards were given to: Karen Schultz, Service; John Sammis, Science; and Debbie Orth, Social Science.

TRACES OF ACHIEVEMENT . . .

Top: Debbie Burdick received the Industry-Education Science Medallion. Middle left: Deana Cooper was awarded the Business-Education Medallion, the Ed Chapman Scholarship for $100, and was awarded second place in the Miss Business Contest competing with all local high schools. Left: Susan Renne received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. Bottom left: Jeff Kennedy was a Kiwanis Club Winner. He received the award for Leadership. The Girls' League Girl of the Month awards were chosen by a committee of faculty and Girls' League members. Below, left to right: Debbie Orth, November — Miss Wise One; Debbie Huntsman, December — Miss Christmas Spirit; April Grimwood, January — Miss Personality; Sheryl Hunstein, February — Miss Sweetheart.

Bank of America Certificate winners:

The YMCA Youth and Government participants were chosen by attending the Diamond Bar-Walnut YMCA Youth and Government meetings and collecting merits for each activity they participated in. The YMCA chose nine total students from the Diamond Bar-Walnut area, and five of those students were from Walnut High School. They used the Capitol in Sacramento for four days, introducing and debating bills, working on committees and exploring all facets of State Government, as would be done in real government.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

COACH MURRAY ACHIEVES MILESTONE

This year marked Bill Murray's seventh year of being a head varsity basketball coach. He started at Nogales where he was head coach for three years. During this time, he won the Nogales Tournament twice.

This year was Coach Murray's fourth year at Walnut. Since coaching at Walnut, his team has gone to the CIF Playoffs three out of four years. This season was probably Mr. Murray's most memorable. Winning the Laguna Tournament, being rated third in CIF at the beginning of the season, and winning the hundredth game of his career, made this year a remarkable one. This milestone is noteworthy and deserves congratulations to both Mr. Murray and his team for a job well done.

FALL AND WINTER AWARDS

WALNUT CAPTURES THREE LEAGUE TITLES

Three of the four basketball teams brought home league championships. The Varsity Basketball team completed its season with a perfect 14-0 league record, and an overall record of 26-3. Walnut entered the CIF playoffs as the number two-seeded team in CIF. They defeated their first opponent, Baldwin Park, through a high scoring outburst in the last quarter of play, but were later upset at San Clemente by three points.

The JV team was also 14-0 in league play, and had a 19-2 overall record. The Frosh team brought home the third league championship by defeating Gladstone in overtime, which gave them a 13-1 record in the league, and a 18-4 record overall.

In addition to basketball championships, Walnut's Varsity Wrestling team excelled by placing three men in league finals. Bruce Yamashita placed second in the 98 pound division, Jim Spaulding ranked fourth in the 106 pound weight class, and Dan Jenson took second in the 156 pound classification. Due to the consistent effort of its fall and winter teams, Walnut ended the winter season in contention for the Hacienda League All-Sports Trophy.

KEEP ON TRUCKIN . . .

The Girl's Athletic Association is composed of spirited and athletic-minded girls competing in five different sports. Miss Judy Mallozzi, the advisor, coached volleyball, basketball, and softball. Mrs. Kathy Torosian coached tennis, and Mrs. Judy Manthorne coached badminton.

Aside from competing, the girls had other activities. There were two candy sales; both were very successful. In December, G.A.A. had their Christmas party in the girls' shower and locker room. Afterwards, some of the girls went caroling. The sixth annual awards banquet was held at the end of the year. Everyone had a good time, especially the ones who received trophies.

Miss Mallozzi felt that the morale of the club was high this year. The players were more spirited, energetic, and responsible. With the experience of the old, the vitality of the new, the girls were more successful in sports, and they accomplished more as a club.

TRACES OF . . . LEADERSHIP

The main goal of the 1973-74 ASB cabinet was to encourage student interest and involvement. They tried to arrange at least one assembly per month and helped sponsor club activities. The cabinet is run by a democratic process - activities and business are decided by majority vote.

The ASB cabinet has many duties. They coordinate all extra-curricular activities and meetings, organize the House of Representatives and I.C.C., run the student store, set up sports events and pay for the stadium and officials, and distribute and sell ASB cards.

The ASB also held a candy sale to provide money for clubs and organizations.

TRACES OF . . . MEMORY MAKING

Throughout the school year, the Annual Staff may have performed the hardest job on campus: producing the yearbook. They learned and used many new techniques to make a different kind of yearbook for the 1973-1974 school year. The staff worked long, hard hours, starting in the summer by selling ads. The group had seemingly endless deadlines to complete, which involved taking pictures, making layouts, writing copy, proofreading and the production of final drafts. Work continued into the summer to produce the supplement. The organization spent many after-school hours for the output of CAYUSE '74.

A traditional staff party was held at the end of the year. An awards banquet highlighted the year's end, recognizing achievement in photo-journalism.

'74 Cayuse Staff:

Sitting at table: Carole Paine, Denise Cooper, Phyllis Roush, Diane Nimmo, Jean Cherrington, Paula Lidgett, Cindy Serna.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club held their annual Walnut pin sale at the beginning of the year. They also sponsored a paper drive. During December and January, they were greatly involved in astronomy, as they followed the progress and developments of the Comet Kohoutek.

C.S.F.

Members of the California Scholarship Federation had to have at least ten points for six class grades to be eligible to join. CSF members made several interesting, educational field trips which included a UCLA game. They attended a taping of "Hollywood Squares," which was also a fund-raising event. CSF sponsors a scholarship awarded to a graduate each year, and CSF members are eligible for many other scholarships.

TRACES OF . . . ENTERPRISE

Veritype . . . Bylines . . . Pasteups
. . . Layouts . . . Cutlines . . . Flag
. . . Sluglines . . . Cropping

These are a few of the terms that the members of the Hoofprint Staff must learn and work with. The Hoofprint is run like any other newspaper, although on a much smaller scale. Reporters researched and wrote articles and submitted them for approval. The articles were vari-typed, layouts were drawn up, and paste-ups were completed. All this was done before the printing deadline.

Each staff member had a "beat" or aspect of student activity about which he was informed. The Hoofprint reported on the many activities on Walnut's campus. It informed the students and promoted interest in school affairs.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Girl's League is a growing girls' organization on campus. The girls worked hard throughout the year putting on various activities. Girls' League sponsored their sixth annual Christmas Formal. This year the event's theme was "Whispers of Winter" and was held in the Penthouse of the International Airport Hotel. Once again the Christmas Formal was a great success. Other activities included a Father-Daughter social hour, flower sales on Valentine's Day, May Day and Homecoming. At the end of the year Girls' League held a Mother-Daughter tea that honored the Senior girls. They also sponsored a raffle and three dances throughout the school year.

A TRACE OF THE DRAMATIC

Thespians is an international, honorary society. Membership in the society must be earned, and initiation confers life membership. Fifteen points must be earned before initiation. Each point represents ten hours of excellent work. Points are earned for rehearsals, technical work, performances, set construction and publicity work.

Walnut's Thespian Troupe 2585 sponsored several activities this year. Closed meetings were held bi-monthly throughout the year. Profits from the production of a cookbook, rummage sale and the sale of refreshments during performances went into the Thespian treasury. Treasury funds were used to buy equipment for performances and the Drama Department. Funds were also used to buy awards that were presented to Thespian members. The annual Thespian Awards Banquet was held at the Royal Coachman Restaurant, June 8th.

The Drama Department presented five public performances during the year: two musicals, "Show Me Where The Good Times Are," "Oliver!", one drama, "Inherit The Wind," and two children's theater shows, "Livin' De Life," and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

1. Thespians, Back row, left to right: Sue Snider, Ray Watson, Kathy Cardwell, Middle row: Scott Sherman, Mr. Betts, Bev Brown, Roberta Jackson, April Grimwood, Kim Watson, Rick Bailey, Victor Traxel, Front row: Kathy Littleton, Mike Hamilton, Rick Bailey, Ed Ortega, Jeff Krause, Jenny Hillseth, Kathy Nunn, Julie Norris. 2. # TRACES OF . . . UNITY

Working together, striving for precision, uniformed and at attention . . . they wear the colors of Walnut High School.

The Walnut Band and Drill Team are familiar sights of the football season. In addition to performing during homegame halftimes, they represent Walnut in many invitational parades and competitions.

Under the direction of Mr. Richard Massaro, Walnut's new band director, Band and Drill have learned advanced formations and tried new routines. Both Band and Drill held individual activities during the year. Band's annual Christmas and Spring Concerts were well attended. They had three paper drives and one nut sale. The funds from these activities went toward the Band's participation in National City competition.

The Drill Team also went to National City Competition. Their fund-raising activities included selling football game ribbons, selling Christmas candles, and holding a rummage sale.

J.V. CHEER

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders cheered at J.V. football and basketball games. The girls participated in the pep rallies. They also helped promote school spirit at W.H.S.

TRACES OF . . . ENTHUSIASM

The Varsity Pep squads participated in many activities. Besides cheering at games, the Cheerleaders and Songleaders kidnapped the Varsity football team and coaches for an early morning breakfast. The girls put on pep rallies (in 50's style, too!), and did various spirit lifting things for all the guys in sports.

The Cheerleaders and Songleaders competed in state competitions throughout the school year. The Walnut pep squads continuously received top awards and recognition for their time and hard work. The girls were always busy!

TRACES OF . . . HARMONY

Walnut's Music Department is rapidly expanding. This year Walnut had three chorus groups — Chamber Singers, Les Chanteuses, and Concert Choir. The chorus groups performed at assemblies during the year and participated in the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts. The singers dressed formally for their productions.

The Chamber Singers are a special group. They used choreography during their performances. They also performed for various community organizations.

Walnut's all-girl chorus chose the name Les Chanteuses because, in french, it means "women singers." The group's performances were characterized by the feminine sound of easy-listening music.

Concert Choir was the largest division of singers. They performed several times for the Walnut student body. Many of the choir's members also performed in the chorus of WHS dramatic productions.

Friendliness . . . Intelligence . . .
Brightest Smiles . . . These are just a few of the qualities that go into the choosing of Senior Standouts. As in past years, this is a rather big election that takes place at Walnut High School and '74 is no exception! Each Senior was given a list of the fourteen categories and asked to choose one boy and one girl for each. In turn, the yearbook staff tallied the votes up, but did not announce them in order to surprise the student body at the end of the school year. The 1974 Cayuse proudly salutes you . . . Senior Standouts.

OUR SHADOWS FALL WHERE WE MAY NEVER BE

Whatever we do or fail to do and say has such subtle and far-reaching influence that we can never tell what the result will be. Our shadows fall where we may never be. A deed or word may set in motion forces that change the history of the world.

MATHEMATICS TAKES US INTO THE REGION OF ABSOLUTE NECESSITY, TO WHICH NOT ONLY THE ACTUAL WORLD, BUT EVERY POSSIBLE WORLD, MUST CONFORM.

- BERTRAND RUSSELL -

Mathematics is a language in numbers and symbols. A knowledge of math is needed for almost every aspect of life — science, economics, mechanics, homemaking. Our math department teaches math skills and knowledge, and provides courses for college preparation.

Walnut High's Math Department offers year-long, elective courses. The courses range from Basic Math to Trigonometry. Although very little math is required, the math classes usually have full enrollment.

There are five full-time, and one part-time, math teachers. These faculty members teach different levels of mathematics and use varying approaches.

TRACES OF . . . THE PAST

Walnut's Social Science Department offers many interesting courses. In addition to the usual three years of required study, the department offers honors courses and elective courses.

The department makes extensive use of physical and visual aids. Films, maps, models, displays, speakers, and field trips are a few of these aids.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS OFFERS VOCATIONAL SKILLS

Below: Larry Fiegles works on a table in wood shop.

The Industrial Arts Department at Walnut is a large one. The courses are designed to teach practical, occupational skills. Classes are offered in several areas of industrial arts: auto mechanics, wood shop, metal shop, drafting, graphics, and electronics.

The Industrial Arts Department works in coordination with the Regional Occupational Program (ROP) in offering vocational training programs to high school students. This program enables a student to graduate from high school with a salable skill.

Walnut's English Department offered an elective program for 10th, 11th, and 12th grades. This is the program's second year. There are four nine week periods during which several electives are offered. A composition class is required for one, nine-week period. This program allows the student to choose an area which interests him and allows the teacher to specialize and concentrate on a subject.

The elective courses offered vary greatly — Mass Media, Creative Writing, Mythology, Great Authors, Contemporary Problems, Dynamics of Communication. Student response to the program is favorable. A survey taken at the end of last year showed that a great majority of the students favored the English Elective Program over the yearly program.

TRACES OF . . .

THIS HIGH SCHOOL YEAR

Left: Arlene Jarvis shares a smile during lunch. Below: One of the school's many "hopeful" noon-time visitors. Bottom: Mike Headly quietly sits through a class.

TRACES OF . . . DAYS

SCHOOL DAYS,
THE COMING AND GOING OF SO MANY YOUNG LIVES
WHO MAKE EVEN REGULAR DAYS, SPECIAL.

Above right: Connie Himes finds a moment of solitude. Above: Lori Swanson catches the eye of the camera. Right: Patty Tsilidas "gets away from it all."

TRACES OF . . . TIME

WE HAD SO MANY THINGS TO DO AND SO LITTLE TIME TO DO THEM.
THROUGHOUT THE RUSHING AND RESTLESSNESS
OF THE DAY
THERE WAS STILL TIME TO "KICK BACK."
IN THE PACKED AND CROWDED TIMES
THERE WAS THE DESIRE TO BE ALONE.
AND IF WE ALL TRACE BACK . . .
THERE WAS SO MUCH TIME TO BE HAPPY.

TRACES OF . . . THE END

THE END OF THIS SCHOOL YEAR HAS COME.
THERE ARE TRACES OF HAPPINESS AND SADNESS, OF ANTICIPATION AND INDIFFERENCE.
TODAY IS THE END, BUT ALSO THE BEGINNING.

EVEN THOUGH:

... We suffered many aches and pains while trying to complete this annual... We finished it!

... we hung in there with 31 colds, 17 orthodontic appointments, 1 broken ankle, a near blind advisor with a cracked contact lens... We finished it!

... We stomached, roughly 58 Big Macs, 49 orders of soggy french fries, 24 bags of taco flavored doritos and countless numbers of warm cokes... We finished it!

... We did our part to start the energy crisis by making 32 trips to Sanford Studios, spending 27 hours on the phone and burning 62 hours of extra electricity because of staying after school for deadlines. We helped to create the paper shortage by going through over 400 layouts... We finished it!

... And now we would like to thank everyone who put in so much of their time and effort toward the making of this annual. And because it was worked on, not as an individual project, but as a group effort... We finished it!

Next,
Are you ever going to learn to read the experiment
the night before?
(Ha-ha-ha!) Well, we had a lot of fun this year. See you around school in 74-75.
